International Alliance for Peace and Development

In October 2017, in the context of the foundation of the "International Alliance for Peace and Development", "Entrepreneurship and Social Economy Group (E.K.O)" (Greece) represented by its President Ms. Kitty Panourgia signed a Joint Cooperation Protocol with "Maat Foundation for Peace, Development and Human Rights" (Egypt) which enjoys a special consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations, represented by Mr. Ayman Okeil, Chairman of the Board of Trustees .

"International Alliance for Peace and Development" is founded in order to strengthen cooperation, coordination, integration and joint action among civil society organizations, members of the Alliance in various countries, to contribute to the achievement of peace, development and rehabilitation of human rights values agreed upon by the world and approved by the United Nations.

The Protocol provides a forum for the implementation of actions towards the improvement of human rights, the support of peace, the fight against violence, terrorism and extremism.

The Alliance's Board of Trustees is to be elected in the near future.
