

PRO(F)LITERACY 2.0 NEWSLETTER #4

JANUARY 2025

► SUCCESSFUL IMPLEMENTATION OF THE 3RD TPM (WS3)

From September 3rd to 5th, 2024, in Riga, Latvia, hosted by “Evolving Youth”. The partners held the third meeting which aimed at advancing collaboration within the consortium and ensuring project quality. Key discussions included plans for the 4th virtual workshop in September 2024, local session documentation, and travel schedules for the January 2025 TPM. The team also reviewed manual development guidelines, the dissemination strategy, and plans for events in early 2025. Monthly updates and calls were emphasized, with the next meeting set for October 2024. The session ended with a recap of action points, deadlines, and final comments.

This meeting comes in the context of implementing the PRO(F)LITERACY 2.0 project, an initiative aimed at empowering young people with financial literacy skills to navigate today’s challenging economic and social landscape. Through this program, we aim to build resilient, informed, and financially capable future generations.

Co-funded by the European Union

► ONGOING IMPLEMENTATION OF LOCAL WORKSHOPS SERIES

The implementation of local workshops under the PRO(F)LITERACY 2.0 project continues to progress successfully. These workshops are designed to address key themes of the project, fostering community engagement and enhancing participants' knowledge and skills. Through interactive activities and collaborative discussions, the workshops aim to empower individuals, promote financial literacy, and strengthen the impact of the project at the local level. Stay tuned for updates as the workshops advance and contribute to achieving the project's overarching goals.

► SUCCESSFUL IMPLEMENTATION OF MORE VIRTUAL MOBILITIES

During these 5 months, PRO(F)LITERACY partners held three more virtual mobilities: Financial Profiles, Managing Money: Impulsives Vs Conscious Purchases, and Creative Savings virtual mobility. During these sessions, participants gained deeper insights into financial literacy, exploring traditional beliefs about money and discovering new strategies for managing their budgets effectively. They also learned practical approaches to saving for different purposes, empowering them with valuable tools and knowledge to make smarter financial decisions.

► SUCCESSFUL IMPLEMENTATION OF THE 4TH TPM (WS4)

The fourth transnational partner meeting of the PRO(F)LITERACY 2.0 project took place in Athens, Greece, from January 16th- 18th, 2025, focusing on reviewing project progress and addressing key challenges. The meeting began with an energizer activity to foster engagement, followed by reflections on the final project webinar and partners suggested involving external speakers and encouraging youth participation through question preparation. Updates on local workshops were shared, and partners were reminded to submit documentation. The team also revisited the structure of the Community of Practice, emphasizing content creation for social media. Dissemination strategies were discussed, including upcoming events with interactive elements and promotional materials. The meeting concluded with a review of communication, monitoring, and risk management efforts, alongside structured reflections to inform the final project report.